

What makes you different from these victims?

Two teenagers killed in grain bin engulfment

An accident, which occurred yesterday left two dead on a local farm where the two teenagers were cleaning a grain bin and became engulfed in the grain.

Local resident dies from fall

An area man dies tragically after falling from a grain bin on Friday.

NO ONE IS ACCIDENT PROOF

Owners found negligent in grain bin deaths

After an extensive investigation, the property owners where a grain bin engulfment related fatality occurred, were found to be negligent for not providing the necessary safety equipment and proper training for employees.

Local officials: "This tragedy could have been avoided"

Area farmer loses leg in auger accident

"This shouldn't have happened to me"

According to the victim, it only took a few seconds for his life to change forever in a Friday morning accident.

No one is accident proof.

Take precautions when working in a grain bin.

Grain & Feed Association of Illinois